

User Type

General User

Student

Instructor

Admin

Description

This User encompasses all users and their possible actions which include logging in and out and searching for courses via a CRN number.

The User type student should be able to Add/Remove Courses to his or her schedule based on CRN Number, he/her should be able to check conflicts with their schedule and eventually print out their schedule.

The instructor should be able to print their course schedule and print/search their course rosters to determine who is in their class.

The administrator of this system shall be able to add/drop new courses to the system itself as well as add new users to the system and be able to manipulate them to put them into classes and take them out.